EMC Insurance Foundation Donates to Jester Park Conservation Center

DES MOINES, Iowa (Sept. 15, 2014) – EMC Insurance Foundation donated to the Jester Park Conservation Center to aid in constructing the new facility. The new conservation center, where people of all ages are welcome to explore, will provide year-round educational programming.

“EMC is proud to be part of the expanding efforts to promote environmental and conservation education,” explains Bruce Kelley, president and chief executive officer of EMC. “The Jester Park Conservation Center promises to be a much-needed facility in our community that will provide exceptional educational and recreational experiences.”

EMC Insurance Companies places an emphasis on enhancing the quality of life in the communities it serves. The company and its employees throughout the country are actively involved in donating both time and money to a variety of charitable organizations. The EMC Insurance Foundation was established in 1989 to review philanthropic requests and continue ongoing efforts to improve the communities in which EMC employees live and work.
