

Hazard Communication Module 7 Answers

1. Oxidizers may readily produce oxygen and ignite combustibles.

True

False

2. Personal protective equipment should be used when handling reactive chemicals.

True

False

3. When administering first aid in an overexposure situation you should always contact emergency personnel.

True

False

4. When combined with combustibles, oxidizers may start a fire.

True

False

5. Reactive chemicals may cause severe burns to what parts of the body?

Skin

Eyes

Nose/throat

All of the above

6. If reactive chemicals react with air or water, their products may be?

Corrosive

Poisonous

Flammable

All of the above

None of the above

7. Possible causes of fire include all of the following except?

Exposure to darkness

Absorption of moisture

Friction

Retained processing heat.

Spontaneous chemical changes

8. Reactive chemicals are capable of destroying living tissue.

True

False

9. Reactive chemicals are?

Solids or liquids

Promote fire

Oxidizers and organic peroxides

All of the above

10. Which method of leak detection is the least reliable?

MSDS information

Air monitoring

Sight

Smell